

DepED Advisory No. 250, s. 2007
In compliance with DECS Order No. 28, s. 2001 this advisory is issued for the information of DepED officials and personnel (Visit DepED website at www.deped.gov.ph)
December 4, 2007

2008 MATHEMATICAL SOCIETY OF THE PHILIPPINES (MSP)
ANNUAL CONVENTION

The Mathematical Society of the Philippines (MSP) will hold its 2008 Annual Convention on May 23-24, 2008 at the National Institute for Science and Mathematics Education Development, University of the Philippines, Diliman, Quezon City.

The objective of the convention is to provide a forum for Filipino mathematical educators and researchers to interact and share their work experiences towards the promotion of mathematics education in the country.

The participants to the annual convention are 300 teachers and mathematicians nationwide as well as a dozen foreign guests.

Those who wish to contribute papers are requested to send the title and abstract on or before March 23, 2008.

The registration fee is Two Thousand Two Hundred Pesos (PhP2,200.00) for MSP members and Two Thousand Five Hundred Pesos (PhP2,500.00) for non-members. Regular registration is on April 30, 2008. Late registration rates are: Two Thousand Five Hundred Pesos (PhP2,500.00) for MSP members and Two Thousand Eight Hundred Pesos (PhP2,800.00) for non-members. Registration by e-mail is at acelajadm@disu.edu.ph.

For more information, contact Dr. Maxima Acelajado, MSP 2008 Convention Chair, Mathematics Department, De La Salle University, Taft Avenue, Manila fax to (02) 536-0270 and website address: <<http://www.mathsocietyphil.org>>